AGCO Receives European Commission Approval To Acquire The Business of Valtra Corporation

DULUTH, Ga., Dec. 12 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- The European Commission today notified AGCO Corporation (NYSE: AG) and Kone Corporation of its unconditional approval for the acquisition by AGCO of the business of Valtra Corporation, the global tractor and off-road engine manufacturer unit of Kone.

The parties will move to consummate the transaction in the near future.

Safe Harbor Statement

The parties' expectation with respect to completing the transaction is a forward looking statement, and actual results may differ materially from those suggested by this forward looking statement for a number of reasons, including the need to fulfill the closing conditions in the definitive agreement and the finalization of its financing.
